

Can You Smell It?

A concrete noun is a person, place or thing that can be perceived by the senses. You know that a noun is concrete if you can see, hear, feel, touch, smell or taste the thing it stands for.

DIRECTIONS: If the bolded noun in each sentence is concrete, circle "correct." If it is abstract, circle "incorrect."

- | | | | |
|-----|---|---------|-----------|
| 1. | The whole performance was a catastrope . | correct | incorrect |
| 2. | We have noticed that we never get chosen for a team . | correct | incorrect |
| 3. | I get a lot of enjoyment out of eating a hotdog. | correct | incorrect |
| 4. | Coffee and donuts were provided for hospitality. | correct | incorrect |
| 5. | In frustration , she tried to refute their argument. | correct | incorrect |
| 6. | The dog has so much patience; he waits for me to throw the ball. | correct | incorrect |
| 7. | We can hardly contain our excitement at the circus. | correct | incorrect |
| 8. | We will eat spaghetti when my parents get home. | correct | incorrect |
| 9. | The men often lash out in anger. | correct | incorrect |
| 10. | She stared at the boy in disbelief . | correct | incorrect |

Can you think of twelve concrete nouns? Write them on the lines.

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____