

Recognizing Concrete Nouns

A concrete noun is a person, place or thing that can be perceived by the senses. You know that a noun is concrete if you can see, hear, feel, touch, smell or taste the thing it stands for.

DIRECTIONS: Circle the concrete nouns in each sentence.

1. When Jill left the room she was pink with disappointment.
2. Ryan loves shopping online for new clothes.
3. We think that the cost of these shoes is extortion.
4. She has a lot of courage if she plans to climb that mountain.
5. I was impressed with his fortitude; he got back onto the horse after falling.
6. We waited with expectation, but the phone never rang.
7. If you go out early enough, the streetlights are still on.
8. Do you have the strength to lift that barbell?
9. We felt panic when we got lost and couldn't find the building.
10. Our driver navigated the traffic with courtesy.
11. If I don't meet my mother for lunch I may feel regret.
12. That woman has been gifted with an extraordinary capacity for kindness.
13. The pigeon sat on the windowsill twenty stories above the street.
14. When we opened the box, we found a hat inside.