Interrogative Sentences

An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark.

News reporters have to ask lots of questions, which are interrogative sentences.

For example, a news reporter might ask:
What do you think about that?
Why did you decide to do that?
Where did that happen?

Imagine you are a reporter and can interview anyone in the world. You can ask them any questions you want. Who would you choose?

I would interview: _____

Make a list of some interrogative sentences you would ask this person:
