

Name: _____

Interrogative and Declarative Sentences

All sentences begin with a capital letter. A declarative sentence, or statement, is a sentence that tells something. Declarative sentences end with a period. An interrogative sentence, or question, is a sentence that asks something. Interrogative sentences end with a question mark.

Declarative Sentence:

I like to build snowmen.

Interrogative Sentence:

Would you like to build a snowman?

Write D if the sentence is declarative.

Write I if the sentence is interrogative.

1. _____ Would you like to go sledding with me?
2. _____ Can you help me find my coat, boots, and mittens?
3. _____ I like drinking hot cocoa by the fire.
4. _____ What is your favorite winter activity?
5. _____ Do you know how to make a snow angel?
6. _____ Do you want to have a snowball fight with us?
7. _____ Let's go have a snowball fight.
8. _____ Go outside and shovel the snow.
9. _____ When will it start snowing?
10. _____ My snowman is starting to melt.