

Name _____

Date _____

my, your, his, her, its, our, their

A possessive determiner is only a determiner if a noun phrase follows it.

His picture was the best. <--- is a determiner because picture was is a noun phrase.

His was the picture that won the contest. <--- not a determiner because was is not a noun phrase.

Read each sentence and underline the possessive determiner. Note: Not all sentences will have an underlined word.

That is my phone sitting on the counter.

Can you bring our cat to the vet today?

Martin dropped his books on the floor.

Hers were the best cookies in the bake sale.

That is their house on the left.

Yours was the best acting that I have ever seen.

Katie gave me your book to read.

Should we go to their house tonight?

His were the only ones there.