

Name: _____

Date: _____

Idioms and Their Meaning

1. Jerry was too tired to finish the assignment, so he decided to hit the hay.

2. Alan was excited when he found out that he would have his own front row parking spot at the university, but that was just the icing on the cake.

Ever since Amy's uncle bought the farm, she's been faced with the difficult decision of dividing the inheritance amongst the family.

3. Working at the Burger King was at first overwhelming to Kyle, but now he knows the ropes.

4. Julie thought her mom would let her go to the party, but no dice.
