

Name: _____

Simple & Complete Subjects

Read each sentence. If the underlined portion is a simple subject, write “SS” in the blank space. If the underlined portion is a complete subject, write “CS”.

The complete subject tells you what the sentence is about. The simple subject is typically a single noun that describes what the sentence is about.

1. The green and yellow apples are bitter. _____
2. My grandmother is sewing us a quilt. _____
3. The computer in the office is not working. _____
4. The accountant searched for his calculator all day long. _____
5. The sparkly bottle in the bathroom has lotion in it. _____
6. My favorite butterflies are orange and black. _____
7. Matthew’s basketball is stuck on the roof. _____
8. The red and white flag fell off the pole. _____
9. Carrie’s uncle has a cattle ranch in Montana. _____
10. The lazy white cat slept in the grass for hours. _____
11. Every clock in the house is wrong. _____
12. Danny’s blue gloves are in the drawer. _____