Planning Events

Directions: Every month, your family wants to do three fun things. They made a list but forgot to put the commas in the sentences. Your job is to put the commas in the proper places in each sentence.

1. In January, we are going ice skating snowmobiling and skiing.
2. In February, we are making Valentine cards baking heart-shaped cookies and having a fancy dinner.
3. In March, we are going to the art museum going to play a board game and making a pancake breakfast.
4. In April, we are going to the zoo watching a movie and going to the library.
5. In May, we are going for a bike ride getting ice cream and stargazing.
6. In June, we are going to the lake having a picnic and going to the park.
7. In July, we are picking strawberries going to a baseball game and watching fireworks.
8. In August, we are going camping having a bonfire and going fishing.
9. In September, we are making apple cider putting a puzzle together and watching the sunset.
10. In October, we are carving pumpkins trick-or-treating and going bowling.
11. In November, we are making a pie hunting and shopping.
12. In December, we are giving gifts decorating cookies and sledding.
