

Mark the Spot!

Possessive nouns are used to show that something belongs to a person, place, thing or idea. Make a singular noun possessive by adding an apostrophe and an "s" to the end.

EXAMPLE: The carton belongs to the builder → the builder's carton

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence below. If the possessive noun in the sentence is correct, put a check (✓) on the line. If it is not correct, put an X on the line.

1. _____ Abby's preference is to adopt a cat.
2. _____ Marks homework was eaten by his dog.
3. _____ Linas Alsenas' books are my favorite.
4. _____ Karen's first dive was her best one.
5. _____ Did you like Janis's presentation?
6. _____ The flowers' growth is astonishing.
7. _____ The scissors' blades are dull.
8. _____ Did you see the deers white tail?
9. _____ That elephant's tusk is cracked.
10. _____ That is Peter's book.

