

Name _____ Date _____

Use the Table of Contents to answer the following questions. Circle the correct answer.

1. What chapter would offer an overview of the entire solar system?

One                                      Two                                      Six

2. What do you think chapter 3 is about?

Stars                                      Planets                                      People

3. Constellations are made of stars. If I wanted to learn more about constellations, which chapter should I read?

Five                                      Three                                      Two

How many pages is chapter 4?    Three                      Five                      Four