

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Hot Air Balloon Show

Read.

One day, Rachel went to a hot air balloon show. The giant balloons were made of brightly colored fabric called nylon. They were attached to large baskets that people could ride in. The balloons had flames that let off hot air to keep the balloons inflated. When Rachel stood close to a balloon, she felt the hot air on her face. At the end of the show, all of the balloons lifted off into the sky.

Answer the questions.

Who is the story about? _____

Where does the story take place? _____

Write three details from the story in the boxes.

--	--	--