

Adverbs

An adverb is a word that modifies a verb. It describes how, when or where an action happens.

Read the sentences below. In each sentence the verb is underlined. Circle the adverb that describes the verb. On the line to the right, write whether the adverb describes how, when or where the action happens.

1. Jane reads quietly in her room. _____
2. Carl runs uphill on his way to school. _____
3. George snores so loudly that I can't sleep. _____
4. Mary draws well, so we call her the artist. _____
5. Did you finish the race early? _____
6. "Kay, come here please," mother said. _____
7. We went to the pool yesterday. _____
8. The movie ran late. _____
9. In class we work independently. _____
10. After lunch, we walked slowly home. _____
11. Gene plays the piano beautifully. _____
12. She answered him rudely. _____
13. "I can't go," she said unhappily. _____
14. "It's my birthday!" Kyle said joyfully. _____
15. Dan stayed lazily in bed. _____