Narrative Story Elements

Lost and Found

It was a beautiful summer afternoon. Jamie and her family had been invited to an amusement park for Family and Friends Day by her father's job. After spending time at the water play area, Jamie, her mom and her little brother headed over to the part of the park called dragon's land. It was one of Jamie's favorite places in the park. This was her first time visiting the park with her baby brother. Normally, one of her parents comes up the tree house with her to walk over the ropes to the big slides. However, her baby brother was too little and her mom had to stay behind to watch him.

Jamie started going up the steps to the tree house. There were many other kids running up the tree house towards the big slides. Once Jamie got to the top of the tree house, she looked down to see if she could still see her mother. As she looked over through the ground below, she could not see her mother or brother. Jamie started feeling a little nervous. Maybe she should go back. When Jamie tried to go back, there too many kids coming up the tree and she could not get past them.

She decided to go towards the big slides and slid down. At the bottom of the slide, Jamie went to find her mother and brother. After about ten minutes, Jamie began to feel afraid. The park was big and she could not find her mother as she walked around the bottom of the tree house. She began to cry. An older woman came up to her and asked her if she was lost. The lady told Jamie that she would take her to one of the workers at the park. Jamie was now very afraid. The older woman was a stranger and she was not supposed to be talking to strangers, but she really was also afraid. She looked up and saw her mother running towards her. She was crying too. Jamie was so grateful to see her mother.
