

Name: _____

Evergreen Trees

Evergreen trees do not have leaves. Instead, they have needles. Other trees drop their leaves. Then new ones grow. An evergreen keeps its needles all year long.

Evergreen trees make cones that hold their seeds.

Some evergreens are: fir trees, spruce trees, and cypress trees. Maybe you bring a real tree into your house at Christmas. It's probably an evergreen!

Create an image to go with this information to help others understand it.