The Donkey in the Lion's Skin

A Donkey was travelling through the forest. He comes across a Lion's skin left behind by a hunter. The Donkey puts on the Lion's skin to see how life would be as a Lion. The Donkey scared every animal he came across as he travelled home. The Donkey felt proud and powerful, like he was the king of the jungle. The Donkey opened his mouth and brayed a sound of victory. This sound gave him away. The Fox that was just avoiding the Donkey approached the Donkey and said “You almost fooled me too, but I heard your bray.”

1. Circle the first three verbs in the story.
2. List the three animals in this story: ____________________________
   ____________________________
   ____________________________
3. List two pronouns in this story: ____________________________
   ____________________________
4. What can we learn from this story?
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________
5. What can you do so you do not become the Donkey?
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________