

John's Ice Cream Cone

DIRECTIONS: Choose the sentence from each set that uses quotation marks and commas correctly.

1. _____
A. "I want ice cream," John said.
B. "I want ice cream, John said."
C. "I want ice cream" John said.

2. _____
A. John asked can I have some?
B. John asked "can I have some?"
C. John asked, "Can I have some?"

3. _____
A. Yes, his mother said.
B. "Yes," his mother said.
C. Yes," his mother said.

4. _____
A. Can I have chocolate? John asked.
B. "Can I have chocolate? John asked."
C. "Can I have chocolate?" John asked.

5. _____
A. "Of course," his mother said.
B. "Of course." his mother said.
C. Of course, his mother said.

6. _____
A. "This is delicious." John told his mother.
B. This is delicious," John told his mother.
C. "This is delicious," John told his mother.

7. _____
A. You had better eat it quickly, his mother told him.
B. "You had better eat it quickly, his mother told him."
C. "You had better eat it quickly," his mother told him.

8. _____
A. "Rats! My ice cream melted!" John wailed.
B. "Rats! My ice cream melted! John wailed.
C. Rats! My ice cream melted! John wailed.

