

The Good Old Days

Grandma and Grandpa like to sit and talk about the “good old days”. Read their conversation and circle all the past tense verbs that you can find.

Grandma: “Do you remember, dear, the time before TV and computers, when people sat and talked to each other in the evenings?”

Grandpa: “Yes, those were good times. We also played games, sang songs, and told stories.”

Grandma: “And we never carried phones around and talked to people far away. We talked to the people right in front of us!”

Grandpa: “Yes! And sometimes the ladies would knit or sew, and the men read or take a nap. It was just being together that was important.”

Grandma: (Sigh!) “Yes, those were the good days. Life was more peaceful then.” (Sound of cricket chirping)
Oh, excuse me dear, Doris is calling on my iPhone!”
