

Name _____

Date _____

Toads vs. Frogs

Timmy the Toad and Hopper the Frog are having an argument. Read what they say and choose a present tense verb to complete the sentence.

Timmy: "Toads are better than frogs because they can _____ out of the water."

Hopper: "But we frogs _____ living in the water!"

Timmy: "Toads are better because we can _____ underground, and not many animals _____ to eat us, because we don't _____ good!"

Hopper: "Frogs do _____ a lot of predators, but we can _____ under the water so they can't _____ us."

Timmy: "Well, we toads don't _____ to be around water to survive. We _____ living on land."

Hopper: "We frogs can _____ farther than toads."

Timmy: "That's very true. But we can _____ instead of having to jump everywhere."

Hopper: "You know what, Timmy? I _____ we are both pretty cool animals, wouldn't you _____?"

Timmy: "Yes, Hopper, I have to _____ with you there!"