

Point of View

DIRECTIONS: Read the sentence inside each thought bubble. If it is in first person, color the thought bubble red. If it is in second person, color it yellow. If it is in third person, color it blue.

1. Henry was late for class so he got in trouble.

3. I wonder what we are having for dinner?

2. Did you see that really long train go by? What did you think of it?

4. She wished that she was a redhead instead of a blond.

5. They didn't think that they could possibly sell that many.

7. Connie lost her clarinet.

6. When we get home, let's watch television.

8. He was beside himself with happiness.

