Putting Things In Order

Write about something that you did lately. Include at least three key events. Write a topic sentence. Then describe each key event in the order that they happened.

TOPIC SENTENCE: ____________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

First, ________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

Second, ______________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

Third, _________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________