Can you write a better sentence?

Teacher Directions: Find a magazine or online article. Separate the article into 1-3 paragraphs and type them up, leaving out the concluding paragraph. Divide the class up into pairs and give one paragraph to each pair.

Student Directions: Put you and your partner’s name at the top. Your teacher will give you a short paragraph. Copy the paragraph on the lines below. Then, as a team, write the concluding sentence.

__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________