A Genie Dream Come True

Last night in your sleep you had a dream that a genie came to you and gave you a giant pencil. He told you that instead of just plain wishes, he was going to let you draw your three wishes. When you woke up, the pencil was lying in the bed with you, with a note from the genie saying he would be back that night to collect your drawn wishes. What three things would you draw for the genie? Why would you choose those things to wish for?
