Read each sentence below. If the comma is used correctly, write correct on the line. If it is used incorrectly, write an X on the line. Then rewrite the incorrect sentence on the line provided so that it is correct.

1. I would like for you to mow the lawn, for it is getting too long.

3. There were ribbons on the gift but it wasn’t actually wrapped.

4. Hank wanted to go, and Roger did too but Jake did not.

5. Streamers were hung, and the room was filled with floating balloons.

6. We took the bus for our car had broken down.

7. Would you like to have Chinese food or would you prefer, pizza tonight?

8. Linda baked a chocolate cake and, Mandy’s favorite flavor is chocolate.

9. Wendy couldn’t make it so I invited Charlene.