Pogo’s Adventure

Pogo is a silly fish, who tends to get himself into trouble. One day he swims too far away from the reef, and finds himself out in the depths of the ocean alone. Write a story about what happens to him next. Who does he meet? What does he do? How does he get home?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

CCSS W.4.4 | © http://www.englishworksheetsland.com