Money makes the world go round!

Do you agree with the cartoon? Read the essay topics below and choose one that interests you. Use a computer to type an essay that answers the question. Your essay should be at least one page long.

#1

If money was not an issue, and you did not have to worry about earning a living, what would you do with your life? What kind of work would you do? Where would you live? What kind of relationships would you like to have with your community?

#2

A wealthy family member dies and leaves you over a million dollars in his will. But there's a catch: you can do anything that you want with the money, except use it to benefit yourself. What would you do? Who would you help?

#3

What do you think is the most important thing about money? Do you equate money with responsibility? With luck? Do you see money as a reward? Do you think that having a lot of money is important if you want to live a happy life? Why or why not?
