DIRECTIONS: On the back of this sheet, brainstorm a list of words and ideas related to your report. Which one interests you the most? Use this idea to narrow the focus of your report.

1. What is the topic of your report?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

2. What do you already know about this topic?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

3. What questions do you have about this topic?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

4. What resources will you use to research this topic?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

5. How do you plan to share your report?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________