

The Dreaded Book Report

DIRECTIONS: There is one error in each numbered sentence. Find the error. Then, on the lines below, indicate how to correct it.

(1) Though Meg had grumbled and procrastinating over her book report for weeks, once she started actually reading the novel that she had been assigned, she couldn't put it down. (2) She woke early in the morning read in bed until her mother called her three times for breakfast. (3) She read as she walk to the bus stop, and on the bus. (4) She red at recess, and at lunch time, and on her way home from school. (5) Instead of going outside to play with her friends, she curled up on the sofa with the book. that is, she was physically present on the sofa, but her imagination was a million miles away. (6) It was a good thing that she took to the book so good, too, because she waited so long to get started on the project, that by the time she had finally turned her attention to it, she had only a few days left to read it, and prepare her report.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

