

Name _____

Combining Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Aaron is thinking about the report he has to write. He has a lot of ideas that need to be put together into coherent sentences. Help him by combining his individual thoughts into complex sentences. Then put them into an order that makes sense, and write the paragraph on the lines below.

Sometimes historic buildings are so damaged they need to be almost completely rebuilt.

Historic buildings cannot be torn down.

If the building is gutted the entire façade will be preserved.

The building I was in still had its original floors.

There are over 200 buildings in Alexandria that were built before 1820.

If they are in very bad shape the building will be gutted.

The historic house is over two hundred years old.

The building I was in still had its original fireplaces.

I visited a historic house in downtown Alexandria, Virginia.

Most of the buildings built before 1820 are in Old Town.

