

Antonyms Worksheet

An antonym is a word that has the opposite meaning of another word.

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence below. Write an antonym on the line for each underlined word.

1. After school Karen took a lengthy walk. _____
2. Jim couldn't believe Gail's apology was genuine. _____
3. Rachel stacked the blocks horizontally. _____
4. Constance rode her new horse around the paddock. _____
5. Clara seeks a pair of shoes to match her dress. _____
6. Mark confessed because he was guilty. _____
7. Edith thought that the recipe was simple. _____
8. Paul didn't have an answer for his teacher. _____
9. Francine tried to look as if her clothes were normal. _____
10. Alice is a very healthy girl. _____
11. Timothy was hoping for an improvement in his grades _____
12. Samantha felt how smooth the fabric was. _____
13. We sledded down the wide hill side by side. _____
14. This story is set in the present. _____