

Name _____

Prepositions

I'm not sure that's quite right...

Prepositions

DIRECTIONS: In each sentence below, cross out the confusing or incorrect prepositions. Then rewrite each sentence using more appropriate prepositions.

1. Paul liked to stay after school and talk against his friends.

2. George said he would meet his mother at front of the mall.

3. Haley wanted to learn more into conservation.

4. Jerry couldn't stand sitting in case of Charlie.

5. Marcus wrote a book circa how to make money on the internet.

6. In preparation of the test, Kevin studied every day.

7. Doug saw a rainbow between the rain.

8. When she heard the news, Fay looked at me for dismay.

9. Ryan always says the first thing that comes by his mind.
