Research: Using Multiple Sources

DIRECTIONS: Read two different kinds of texts (poems, essays, reference, stories, etc.) on the same topic. Write down key information from each text. Combine the information to get a better understanding of the topic. Share what you have learned with a classmate.

TEXT #1: ________________________________________

TEXT #2: ________________________________________