

Proofreading: Capitalization

The proofreading mark ≡ means to make the letter a capital letter.

mrs. morton

DIRECTIONS: Use the proofreading mark to show where capital letters are needed in the following words and sentences.

1. my mother forgot to buy cereal at the store.
2. When janet arrived the food was already gone.
3. I like all my teachers, but I like mr. peters the best.
4. I spent last summer in minnesota.
5. When you get there, i would like for you to give me a call.
6. Ryan said, "did you get the antidote?"
7. My favorite book is called how to train your dragon.
8. did you see carol last night at the party?
9. When mrs. Jenkins wrote on the board all the students copied the words.
10. jenna's dress was blue, pink and white.
11. The story began, "once upon a time..."
12. The parrot, whose name was cheetah, repeated everything I said.