Paraphrasing

When you paraphrase, you write the ideas from the text in your own words.

DIRECTIONS: Read the text twice, to make sure you understand it. Now set the text aside. In the thought bubble write down what you remember, in your own words, answering the questions who, what, where, when, why and how. Then use your notes to paraphrase the text on the lines.