

Name _____

Correlative Conjunctions

Punctuating Sentences that Contain Conjunctive Adverbs

Conjunctive adverbs put two sentences together and make a new sentence. The original first sentence ends with a semi-colon, and the conjunctive adverb comes before the original second sentence.

DIRECTIONS: Add the correct punctuation to each sentence.

1. James has to mow the lawn otherwise he won't be allowed to go out with his friends.
2. Mother is packing tuna sandwiches consequently we won't have to buy our lunch.
3. We were late getting to the concert nonetheless we were able to sit down before it began.
4. Kevin didn't want to eat ice cream after the game instead we went out for pizza.
5. I do a lot of baking for example this week I will make both chocolate chip and peanut butter cookies.
6. In the summer we always water ski incidentally we also roller skate.
7. Terry never wants to go out in the sun furthermore when she is in the sun she wears a hat and long sleeves.
8. I went to a party on Saturday moreover I went to another party on Sunday.
9. We found the meal to be inedible in fact we fed it to the dog.
10. I wouldn't want to live in California on the other hand the weather is nice there.
11. My parents want me to be a doctor still I would rather be an animal trainer.
12. We vowed to study every day in addition we signed up for a tutor.