

Name _____

Conjunctive Adverbs

Home Improvement

Directions: Choose the conjunctive adverb that best completes each sentence.

1. Jane painted the front door; _____, her father put new shutters on the house.

- A. thus
- B. however
- C. meanwhile
- D. otherwise

2. The bathroom needs some cosmetic work; _____, the pipes are all fairly new.

- A. anyway
- B. meanwhile
- C. however
- D. thus

3. The roof had been leaking for years; _____, they were able to have it replaced.

- A. still
- B. thus
- C. finally
- D. otherwise

4. We need to repair our leaky faucet; _____, we need to repair the washing machine.

- A. hence
- B. likewise
- C. finally
- D. otherwise

5. I thought that the electrician was going to be expensive; _____, he was actually very reasonably priced.

- A. hence
- B. however
- C. thus
- D. meanwhile

6. We recently got new hardwood floors; _____, the carpets are out of the house!

- A. finally
- B. likewise
- C. of course
- D. therefore