

Possessive Pronouns

DIRECTIONS: A possessive pronoun is used to show ownership. These types of pronouns never contain apostrophes, as nouns do in the possessive case. Read each sentence. Write the correct pronoun on the line.

- _____ 1. The dog is (her's, hers).
- _____ 2. (Whose, Who's) house are we going to?
- _____ 3. I bought my ticket but Kim lost (her's, hers).
- _____ 4. (Its, It's) registration number is on the label.
- _____ 5. They won their race, but we lost (ours, our's).
- _____ 6. This dress needs to have (its, it's) hem stitched up.
- _____ 7. Did they wash (theirs, their's)?
- _____ 8. He wasn't sure (who's, whose) bike that was.
- _____ 9. The project in the corner is (ours, our's).
- _____ 10. The dog barked (its, it's) head off all day.
- _____ 11. The bed on the left is (hers, her's).
- _____ 12. If they don't show up soon, (their's, theirs) is going to get cold.
- _____ 13. My house needs (its, it's) roof replaced.

