

Pronoun Case: ITS/IT'S

DIRECTIONS: Pronoun case problems often occur when it comes to deciding whether to use “it’s” or “its”. Always try the substitutions “it is” and “it has” for the contraction “it’s”.

- _____ 1. (It’s, Its) been a long time since we had spaghetti for dinner.
- _____ 2. The car needs (it’s, its) upholstery cleaned.
- _____ 3. That cat knows (it’s, its) name.
- _____ 4. Jane said (it’s, its) her turn to cook.
- _____ 5. The house needs (it’s, its) gutters cleaned.
- _____ 6. This month (it’s, its) been six years since we moved here.
- _____ 7. (It’s, Its) the only toy I have ever broken.
- _____ 8. That earring lost (it’s, its) back.
- _____ 9. (It’s, Its) been raining since Sunday.
- _____ 10. (It’s, Its) been a long time since I’ve seen Jim.
- _____ 11. That dog always follows (it’s, its) mother.
- _____ 12. My hamster does what (it’s, its) told.
- _____ 13. The team lost (it’s, its) first game.