

Circling Analogies

DIRECTIONS: Circle the type of analogy being used in each sentence.

1. A picture is to the eyes as a song is to the ears.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function

2. A fool is to wisdom what a widow is to a husband.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function

3. The clock is to telling time what the lamp is to giving light.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function

4. A computer is to typing what a stove is to cooking.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function

5. A liar is to honesty what a prisoner is to freedom.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function

6. Play is to children what work is to adults.

- A. lack B. characteristic C. function