

Choosing Reflexive and Intensive Pronouns

DIRECTIONS: Fill in the blanks in the following sentences with appropriate reflexive or intensive pronouns. On the line, write R for reflexive or I for intensive.

- _____ 1. You _____ are the most talented player.
- _____ 2. She can protect _____ if she learns a few basic moves.
- _____ 3. If you insist on riding that skateboard you will hurt _____.
- _____ 4. Remind _____ to bring your keys.
- _____ 5. When we allow _____ to cheat, we cheat ourselves.
- _____ 6. Before auditioning for the play, she enrolled _____ in acting classes.
- _____ 7. They will have to figure that out _____.
- _____ 8. I have never seen _____ as particularly romantic.
- _____ 9. Did you think he would show up _____?
- _____ 10. Mark _____ organized the event.
- _____ 11. She says she baked the cookies _____.
- _____ 12. The thing about Kyle is that he's usually late _____.
- _____ 13. I tried to encourage _____ to do better.