Identifying Pronoun Shift

Read each the paragraph. Underline the pronoun shifts.

It was a rainy day. Jenny hated the rain because she always felt gloomy when it rained. Also, their friends always teased her. They said that Jenny got so grumpy when it rained that nothing short of the Cat in the Hat and his crazy tricks would cheer us up!

1. Jane gave Charles the bad news. He didn’t express a lot of emotion, and she was surprised that she took it so well. _____________

2. Kyle and Leah were late for the party, even though we got dressed and out the door on time. ______________

3. Jane baked the cookies and asked each of her guests to help ourselves. ______________

4. The umbrella stood in the corner. For the longest time he was never used, even though it rained quite often. ______________

5. That man is in the movie we just saw together the other day; do we remember seeing him? ______________

6. Alice really likes pizza, even though she tends to get a headache if you eat too much cheese. ______________

7. When Carl was two his family moved from California and she has been wishing that they would move back ever since. ______________