Correcting Pronoun Shifts

Read each sentence. Find the inappropriate pronoun. Rewrite the sentence with the correct pronoun.

1. A diplomat leads an exciting life because they get to live in a foreign country.

2. As we walked into the neighborhood, you could hear the noise coming from the park.

3. Many people feel overwhelmed when they start a new job. However, they soon learn that with hard work and a good attitude you can both fit in and make a positive impact.

4. When I listened to the poem, you could almost imagine what the poet must have been feeling.

5. When we asked about the play, we discovered that it was based on a Shakespeare play and you could read it ourselves.

6. If we did not eat so much meat, you would probably be healthier.

7. If you get plenty of exercise, most people maintain a healthy weight and have plenty of energy.