Correcting Pronoun Shifts

DIRECTIONS: In each of the following sentences, replace the incorrect pronouns with correct pronoun. Underline the incorrect pronouns. Write the correct pronouns on the line.

1. A teacher is always well respected in the community because they often donate both time and money to make sure their kids have what they need in the classroom.

2. When Jim finally arrived, you could see that everyone had been waiting for him.

3. Every time you bake cookies, everyone usually comes over to get some from me.

4. When people exercise really hard your muscles tear a little bit. It takes a day or two for it to heal and then their muscles get a little bit bigger.

5. As Polly rounded the corner, she knew that she was late when you saw that everyone was already assembled.

6. When the average person goes shopping for clothes, you try on at least three things before finding something they like.

7. They went for a walk after work even though in the winter you end up walking in the dark.

8. Even though many people enjoy cooking, you are likely to just heat up and eat frozen meals when they are living alone and don’t have anyone to eat with.

9. When we passed the test you could have kissed the teacher we were so happy!