

Making Inferences

DIRECTIONS: Read each passage and then respond to the questions. The questions will ask you to make a logical inference based on details in the text. Explain your answer by referencing the text on the lines provided.

Pete and Paul were playing cards. Pete won. "Ha!" Pete said. "That's three in a row!" Pete did a little dance in his seat. "Wanna play again?"

Paul threw his cards across the table so hard that one of them gave Pete a paper cut.

"Ow!" Pete cried out. "What'd ya do that for!"

Paul jumped up from the table. His chair fell backward and crashed to the floor. He stomped out of the room.

1. How would you characterize Paul?

Georgia pushed against her bedroom door, but it would barely budge. She shoved again, and succeeded in getting it to open about six inches. She took all of her things that her mother had asked her to pick up from the living room and tossed them into her bedroom through the crack in the door. Then she shut the door with a sigh.

2. What do you think Georgia's room is like?

3. How does Georgia feel about her room?
