

Recognizing and Correcting Verbal Shifts

DIRECTIONS: Check for consistencies in voice and mood in the following sentences. If there is more than one verb in the sentence, consider the first verb to be correct. Identify the error. Write the correct form of the verb on the line.

_____ 1. Emily would eat an apple if you offer her on.

_____ 2. If Manny were to cross the street right now, he will see us.

_____ 3. Follow my lead and you was fine.

_____ 4. Are the neighbors planning to mowed their grass?

_____ 5. I speculate that Andrew made a great teacher.

_____ 6. I think that purple carrots were tastier than orange ones.

_____ 7. I wish I can be with you when you get your tooth pulled.

_____ 8. Please opened the door.

_____ 9. The blue car hit the red one after the red one runs a stop sign.

_____ 10. If it rains too often in the summer the potatoes might rotted in the ground.

_____ 11. Were Polly to play the piano, she can entertain us.

