

Using Dialogue to Reveal CHARACTER

Dialogue is conversation between two or more characters in a book, play or movie. Dialogue is one way that writers create character, since what a person does or doesn't say, or how a person reacts to a certain situation says a lot about a person's character.

DIRECTIONS: Read the assigned text. Choose a specific conversation between characters. Then answer the questions.

1. Briefly summarize the dialogue.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. How does this dialogue reveal character? How? Quote from the text to support your answer.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. Does the dialogue provoke decision or action on the part of any characters? How?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---