

Name _____

Editing Practice

The sentences below all contain some kind of problem—sentence fragments, run on sentences, punctuation problems or some combination of the three. Edit each sentence. Use editing marks. Then, on a separate sheet of paper, rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. You can tell that it is fall the sky is grey and the leaves are beginning to change colors.
2. the girl's spent the night. The next morning one of them left early the other stayed until well into the afternoon.
3. Disappointed. We hope to go to the park today but we were unable to do so because it rained.
4. When Rhonda spilled the kool-aid on the white rug it left a huge red stain.
5. We invited our neighbors to the party but he didn't show up.
6. Look? Elaine shoted. The dog just ran out of the house!
7. Pancakes for breakfast, and sandwiches for lunch, but we had a light dinner.
8. We couldn't have a fire in the wood stove today because no kindling or pieces that would fit into the stove.
9. when Mary left a few things at Karen's house Karen brought them to school for her the following day.
10. The dog stretched out on the ottoman and too a nap I rested my feet against him and rubbed my toe into his fur.

