Sources: The Humane Society

DIRECTIONS: All major cities and many towns have a Humane Society, an organization that takes in stray animals, or animals whose owner, for one reason or another, can no longer care for them. In many cases, when new homes cannot be found for these animals, they are euthanized. Do some research on the Humane Society in general, and/or your local animal shelter. Then take a position on this aspect of animal control. Use relevant and specific evidence from credible sources to support your response. Use the space provided to brainstorm and organize your thoughts. Then draft your essay on a separate sheet of paper.

SOURCES:

___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________

NOTES: