Building Better Communities

Imagine that a philanthropist wants to build something in your community that will be of benefit to the young people there. Write a letter to the philanthropist explaining what you think should be built, and why.