Jazz It Up!

An adverbial phrase is a group of words that act together as an adverb, giving more information about a verb, adjective, or other adverb in a sentence. The adverbial phrase answers the same questions as a regular adverb: how/how much, when, or where.

DIRECTIONS: Underline the adverbial phrase in each sentence.

1. We hope the package will arrive within the hour.
2. My sister reads books almost as quickly as you do.
3. The news reports the metro will be closed for a week.
4. You pen writes better than my pen does.
5. John takes the bus on Tuesdays.
6. Joe and Mary will arrive by train.
7. The dog digs under the fence.
8. Mom helps me with my homework more often than Dad does.
9. Helen found her purse that afternoon.
10. We flew our kites on the big hill.
11. Jim and Fiona played tic tac toe at the dinner table.
12. Eli can run faster than half the track team.
13. Pearl tried to find her necklace in the ocean.
14. First thing in the morning it is still cool outside.
15. Our grandmother will pick us up after practice.
16. Frank will represent our class at the assembly.
