

Let's Get Legal

Choose one of the topic areas below. Research the issues surrounding existing or proposed laws about the topic broadly enough to identify several conflicting viewpoints. Think about what you have learned, and then take a position on the topic.

- tobacco
- marijuana
- the drinking age
- nuclear weapons
- private gun ownership
- birth control
- abortion
- controlled substances
- corporations having "personhood"

1. What is your position?

2. What evidence from your research do you plan to do to support your claim?

3. On a separate page, write a thesis statement that introduces your position, and gives the reader an indication of what to expect from your argument.
